Features:	India is the largest democracy in the world with the freedom of Speech and Expression granted by the Constitution of India. Therefore the provisions related to Freedom and Restrictions on Speech and Expression in social media in the light of the recent Supreme Court decision were evolved. Also the provisions of Corporate Social Responsibility have come in to force to remove Inequalities amongst various sections of the society. To curb the practice of insider the trading SEBI has been tightening the relevant norms through the law relating to Prohibition of Insider Trading. Fair competition is essential for development of a healthy market and also to save the economy from the evils of monopoly. The Competition Law replaced MRTP Act to inter alia regulate and restrict anti-competitive agreements, abuse of dominant position and combinations (i.e., mergers, acquisitions, takeovers, etc.). In India, women have been entering formal labour workforce in an unprecedented numbers and are extremely valuable resources. Sexual Harassment at Workplace is considered as a violation of a woman’s fundamental right to equality, which right is guaranteed by the Constitution of India. To create awareness and share knowledge about the provisions of laws applicable to the society at large, BCAS has published Set of 5 monographs – short “HANDY” publications.
