ABOUT BCAS

Bombay Chartered Accountants' Society (BCAS) is India's largest and oldest voluntary professional body of Chartered Accountants. With a membership exceeding 10,500 individuals | subscribers and a widespread presence across 350+ cities and towns in India, BCAS has been unwavering in its commitment towards the development of the profession since its inception in 1949. BCAS's core mission is to provide its members with extensive opportunities for growth and advancement through a multifaceted approach encompassing learning events, research publications, advocacy, networking, and community initiatives. By operating as a not-for-profit organization, BCAS relies on the dedicated efforts of hundreds of volunteers who selflessly contribute their time and expertise while upholding shared values and professional ethics. A pioneering thought-leader and a community enabler, BCAS continues to play a pivotal role in strengthening the accounting, tax, finance and economic fibre of India.

BCAS diligently nurtures its members professional growth by organising diverse learning events such as seminars, workshops, refresher courses, and study circles, providing them with a platform to enhance their skills and stay updated on industry trends. BCAS boasts of an exceptional track record in research publications, prominently showcased by the BCA Journal (BCAJ), a sought after monthly periodical with over five decades of publication. BCAS's extensive outreach towards nation building is bolstered by its detailed representations to regulators and government authorities. BCAS has a comprehensive approach to professional development combined with its community-focused initiatives enabling a more robust and sustainable future.

HARNESSING TALENT & PROVIDING QUALITY SERVICE

BCAS FOUNDATION

BCAS Foundation is the social wing of the Bombay Chartered Accountants' Society. The Foundation supports various public charitable purposes including education, medical relief, rural development, tree plantation and other objects of general public utility.

ABOUT THE EVENT : Reimagine

On 6th July 2023, BCAS entered its Platinum Jubilee, marking 75 years of service to the community of Chartered Accountants and Society at large. To celebrate this landmark year, events and initiatives are planned throughout the year. The jewel in the crown will be a grand 3-day mega event on Reimagining the Profession which will be held at the prestigious JIO World Centre, Mumbai on January 4, 5 and 6 of 2024. Around 1500+ participants are likely to attend the mega conference.

These three days of संघन will include public events and community activities, as well as moments of reflection on BCAS's 75 years of service. An exciting series of programs covering the future dynamics of the profession, including thought provoking line-up of presentations, panel discussions, fireside chats, interviews, and leadership talks will be the highlights of this event. There will also be cultural performances to stimulate your senses. The celebrations will provide a platform for knowledge dissemination, professional growth, and networking opportunities which will make you future-ready.

BCAS is poised to welcome to this prestigious event industry tsars, academicians, economists, and change enablers from across the country. This event is an ode to an institution that shines ever so brightly on the professional skyline of this country.

BCAS also welcomes non-members professionals to register and participate in this event.
