Role of Professionals in Governance

-A lecture meeting

Dear Member,

Professionals play a vital role in governance by providing their expertise and knowledge in various fields, such as finance and accounts, law, economics, public policy, and administration. Some such areas are

- Contributing to the development and implementation of effective policies and strategies to address complex social, economic, and environmental challenges.
- Helping in the formulation and evaluation of legislation, regulations, and policies by conducting research, analysis, and providing evidence-based recommendations.
- Assisting in the efficient management and allocation of resources by utilising their technical skills and specialised knowledge.
- They serve as advisors and consultants to government officials and other entities, offering expert guidance on matters related to their respective fields.
- They contribute to transparency and accountability in governance by ensuring compliance with legal and ethical standards.
- They play a vital role in fostering innovation and technological advancements, which can lead to improved governance practices and service delivery.
- They participate in decision-making processes, bringing diverse perspectives and interdisciplinary approaches to problem-solving.
- They engage in public advocacy and awareness campaigns, promoting informed discussions and civic engagement in governance issues.

- They play a role in capacity building and training programs, equipping government officials, civil servants and others with the necessary skills and knowledge to perform their roles effectively.
- They provide employment to millions of professionals and contribute to global economic development and activities.

Further, the role of professionals, including Chartered Accountants, has come under sharper focus due to a recent notification issued under PMLA.

The first lecture meeting for the BCAS Year 2023-24 will cover most of these and other related aspects by the speaker, who is a very senior independent director and governance professional.
