Series of Sessions on Standards on Auditing and Key Learnings from NFRA Orders

Dear Members,

With India being the fastest-growing large economy, the stakeholders are looking at companies and business results more closely than ever. The move by NFRA to align the Indian auditing standards with global norms is a major reform towards corporate governance and making India a developed country by 2047. This has made auditors' task more onerous and there are increasing duties and responsibilities to ensure that auditors bridge the expectation gap of the regulators/investors.

The challenge of auditor is to address the risks posed while providing assurance services within the regulatory framework of ICAI and NFRA. Compliance with Auditing Standards is of utmost importance while carrying out audits.

We have planned a series of sessions to provide relevant practical guidance covering Auditing standards and Key Learnings from NFRA orders which should be kept in focus while executing audit assignments

The details of the sessions are as under:
