

Full-Day Workshop on Goods and Services Tax Appellate Tribunal (GSTAT): Law, Procedure, and Practice

Dear Members,

The long-awaited operationalization of the Goods and Services Tax Appellate Tribunal (GSTAT) is now a reality. The Ministry of Finance, on the recommendations of the GST Council, has issued a series of crucial notifications dated September 17, 2025, laying down the framework for the functioning of the GSTAT. The functionality of filing appeals is also likely to start from September 2025 onwards.

To equip our members with a comprehensive understanding of these significant developments, we are pleased to announce a full-day physical workshop dedicated to the law, procedures, and practice of the GSTAT. This workshop is essential for all professionals navigating the landscape of GST litigation.
