

Indirect Tax Laws Study Circle

Dear Members,

Greetings!!

The entertainment sector has witnessed significant transformation in recent years with the rise of multiplexes, digital streaming platforms, live events, gaming, and other new-age formats. While GST has sought to bring uniformity in taxation across this sector, several interpretational and compliance-related issues continue to arise in practice. Questions relating to classification, place of supply, valuation, and taxability of emerging business models often lead to divergent views. With this background, we are pleased to announce the next meeting which aims to deliberate upon some of the key GST issues affecting the entertainment industry and discuss practical approaches to addressing them.
