24th Residential Leadership Retreat

Influence 360 degrees

Win Clients, Lead Teams, Transform families

Dear Members,

What makes a client trust you, a team believe in you and a family grow with you? The answer lies in your ability to influence.

Influence is not about authority, position or getting your way. It is about building trust, communicating with confidence, understanding different perspectives and creating outcomes that work for everyone. These skills matter in the boardroom, at work, in friendships and in family life.

The 24th Residential Leadership Retreat by BCAS invites you to step away from the daily routine for two days and explore how you can influence more thoughtfully and effectively in every role you play. Come on your own or with your spouse; the programme is open to all who want to strengthen their people skills, relationships and leadership.

You will get opportunities to not only understand the techniques, but to practice them under the supervision of a highly experienced professional.

The details of the retreat are provided below:
