Recent Important Judgments Under Income-Tax Law

Dear Members,

Judicial decisions play an important role in shaping the interpretation and application of income-tax law. Recent rulings can affect positions taken in tax returns and advisory assignments, as well as the way practitioners respond to notices, frame grounds of appeal and present arguments before appellate authorities.

The practical application of a judgment depends on the facts before the court, the statutory provisions applicable to the relevant year and the scope of the court's reasoning. These distinctions are particularly relevant where courts have taken differing views or the underlying provisions have since been amended.

To help members stay abreast of significant judicial developments and apply them in practice, the Direct Tax Committee is pleased to organise a webinar on "Recent Important Judgments under Income-Tax Law".

The webinar will, inter alia, cover rulings and decisions of various courts and ITATs.
